La Habra Police Department Press Release
Male Adult in Stable Condition After Being Stabbed (update)

La Habra, CA – July 28, 2019: At approximately 5:55 p.m., La Habra Police Officers were dispatched to the 800 block of West La Habra Blvd., regarding a stabbing that just occurred. Officers arrived to the area and discovered a 57 year old male, Jay Campos, with multiple stab wounds. The person who stabbed Campos remained on the scene and is identified as 49 year old male, Joseph Martinez. Campos is a resident of La Habra and Martinez is a resident from the State of Georgia. Paramedics were immediately called to the scene and Campos was transported to a local trauma center where he is now in stable condition.

Detectives have been working tirelessly on this investigation and learned that Campos, along with another adult male, contacted Martinez at the residence on the 800 block of West La Habra Blvd. Based on statements obtained from witnesses, it appears that while at the residence, an argument ensued which lead to a physical altercation. Campos was stabbed as a result of the physical altercation. Detectives are continuing their investigation and in contact with the District Attorney's Office.
